

THE KEY TO COLLEGE ACCEPTANCE..... EXPERT, INDIVIDUALIZED SAT PREP

Mary Margaret Hunt, San Antonio Director of SAT TEST PREP and TUTORING, stressed the absolute necessity for college-bound students to seek out the finest prep class to study for the SAT, the most dreaded requirement for admission to the colleges of their choice. With the revamped SAT college entrance exam launched two years ago, the new version fulfills its reputation as longer and harder. In addition, higher-level math, grammar, and an essay are added.

- Juniors should aggressively pursue achieving a score to qualify to enter the college of their choice during the March, May, and June SAT test dates.
- Sophomores should assess their test-taking skills for the PSAT in October and begin to build their test-taking techniques. PSAT test scores should not be overlooked.
- PSAT score results alert colleges and universities of recognized students. Scholarship and financial assistance awards begin with PSAT scores.

Hunt remarked, "Having trained under Elissa Sommerfield of Dallas, head of the most respected, longest running SAT prep program in Texas, I am experienced and confident in advising students and their parents of the numerous benefits of

THE SOMMERFIELD – HUNT ADVANTAGE”:

- Limited enrollment classes
- Personalized instruction
- Proprietary and test-writers’ own materials revised semi-annually to address any changes in the SAT
- Experienced, professional teachers who put the student first
- Time-tested but up-to-the-minute curriculum
- Tips on reading comprehension and vocabulary enrichment
- Special emphasis on grammar and especially on written communication
- Review of the arithmetic, geometry, and Algebra 1 and 2 so stringently tested on the SAT
- Practice on actual SAT questions
- Work on logic and critical thinking
- In-depth education on the life-time skill of intelligent test-taking
- Interactive, interesting classes
- Willingness to communicate with parents